LETTER DATED 29 JULY 1992 FROM THE PERMANENT REPRESENTATIVE OF BOSNIA AND HERZEGOVINA TO THE UNITED NATIONS ADDRESSED TO THE PRESIDENT OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL

It is with great grief that I present the attached lists of concentration camps and prisons in Bosnia and Herzegovina, Serbia and Montenegro.

All are under the control of the Belgrade regime and its surrogates. They are holding tens of thousands of innocent citizens of Bosnia and Herzegovina, most of whom are women, children and elderly persons.

We humbly request that the United Nations Security Council take all necessary steps to secure the safety of and make available basic needs to these innocent victims, so they can eventually return to their homes, as agreed in the London Agreement of 17 July.

We ask that this letter and the attached lists be circulated as a document of the Security Council.

(Signed) Muhamed SACIRBEY
Ambassador and Permanent Representative
